FINAL REJECTION

Response to Amendment

1. This action is responsive to the Amendment received on 29 September 2005. Claims 1 and 2 have been amended. New claim 4 has been added. Claims 1-4 are pending in the application.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 4,756,595 to Braun et al.

Referring to claim 1, the Braun et al. reference discloses an optical element module, having: a casing (44); an optical element (38) provided inside the casing; a first rubber boot (56) fixed to the input side end of the casing; a pipe (62) which is fixed to the first rubber boot and communicates the inside of the casing to the outside; and a primary coated optical fiber (40) which is inserted through the pipe in a loose structure and connected to the optical element. See Fig. 4 through Fig. 6B of the reference along with their respective portions of the specification. The Braun et al. reference does not specifically appear to disclose that the rubber boot (56) is fixed to the casing by adhesive. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize an adhesive or any other suitable means for fixing the rubber boot to the casing, since adhesives are a well known in the art as an inexpensive and effective means for attaching and securing components to other components.

Referring to claim 2, the Braun et al. reference discloses the internal cavity of the optical element module is filled with oil. The reference does not appear to specifically disclose that the oil is a gel. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a gel instead of the oil since equivalence of the gel and oil for their use in the optical element module as index matching incompressible fluids and the selection of any of these known equivalents would be within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Referring to claim 3, the Bruan et al. reference discloses the oil or gel should be an incompressible fluid. Therefore it would be obvious to use an oil or gel that would not over expand due to environmental temperature fluctuations.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kevin S. Wood whose telephone number is (571) 272-2364. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday (7am - 5:30 pm).
